A patient is responsible for:

- Providing to your healthcare provider, to the best of your knowledge, accurate and complete information about present complaints, past illnesses, hospitalizations, medications, and other matters related to his health;
- Reporting unexpected changes in your condition to his healthcare provider;
- Reporting to your healthcare provider whether he comprehends a contemplated course of action and what is expected of you;
- Following the treatment plan recommended by your health care provider;
- Keeping appointments and, when you are unable to do so for any reason, for notifying the healthcare provider or healthcare facility;
- Assuring that the financial obligations of your healthcare are fulfilled as promptly as possible;
- A patient is responsible for his or her actions if he or she refuses treatment or does not follow your healthcare provider's instructions.
- Following healthcare facility rules and regulations affecting patient care and conduct.
